Read these Terms of Service carefully before accepting them and using the Services. By clicking on the box "I accept" or any equivalent box, you fully and irrevocably accept these Terms of Service, including, without limitation, any limitations of liability set forth herein. If you are entering into them on behalf of a company or other legal entity, you represent that you have the authority to bind such entity and its affiliates to this Agreement, if you do not have such authority, or if you do not agree with it, you must not accept and you must refrain from using the Services.

1. PURPOSE & APPLICABILITY

1.1. These Terms of Service apply to the provision of Services by SALTO to the Client either via the Platform or a Third Party's Platform.

1.2. These Terms of Service do not regulate the terms and conditions applicable to the sale of the Hardware and/or any Subscriptions by the Seller to the Client (including among others, any warranty and liability regarding the sale and use of the Hardware and the sale of any Subscription). Any claims related to the sale and use of the Hardware and the sale of any Subscription shall be addressed to the Seller from which the Client purchased the Hardware and the Subscription.

1.3. These Terms of Service, together with the Data Processing Agreement, constitute the entire Agreement regarding the provision of the Services by SALTO and the use and access of the Services by the Client through the Platform, and replace any previous agreement between the Parties or any general terms and conditions previously applied by SALTO in relation to the matters referred therein.

In case of any inconsistency between the Terms of Service and the Data Processing Agreement, the latter shall prevail.

1.4. Any term, condition or provision which conflicts with, modifies, adds to or deviates from this Agreement shall only apply if agreed in writing by the Parties. The applicability of any other possible terms and conditions of sale or other terms and conditions by the Client is explicitly excluded.

1.5. The terms capitalized in this Terms of Service shall have the meaning ascribed to them in Annex 1, except the capitalized terms of the DPA which are defined therein.

2. AMENDMENTS

2.1. SALTO reserves the right to modify this Agreement at any time. For these purposes, SALTO will inform the Client by electronic means (such as by email, through the Web App or the Mobile App) about the modifications. The Client shall have a period of fifteen (15) calendar days since the receipt of the referred notification to expressly reject such modifications in the manner set forth in SALTO's notice. Continuous access to the Services after the aforementioned period shall be considered an acceptance of the modifications to this Agreement.

In the event that the aforesaid period has elapsed without Client's express rejection, the modifications shall be deemed accepted by the Client and therefore, fully applicable. In any case, the aforementioned amendments shall be deemed to be accepted by the Client in the event that the later enters into a new Agreement with SALTO. If the Client does expressly reject the aforementioned modifications, the Client shall be entitled to discontinue the Services offered by SALTO and obtain a refund from the corresponding Seller of the Fees paid in advance proportional to the time remaining before the expiry of the Subscription.

3. EXECUTION OF THE AGREEMENT

3.1. The Client acknowledges that the Services described in these Terms of Service cannot be provided in connection with or in association to any other hardware different from the Hardware, which the Client must purchase from a Seller.

The terms and conditions set forth in the Partner Documentation agreed upon between SALTO's Partner and the Client shall not be binding nor enforceable towards SALTO or any other company of SALTO's Group, unless expressly agreed upon in this Agreement.

In case certain terms of the Partner Documentation which the Client considers essential and which conflict with, modify are in addition to or deviate from the provisions of the Agreement, the Client shall have a period of ten (10) calendar days since the acceptance of this Agreement in order to notify to SALTO its decision of terminating the Agreement or its decision of discontinuing the formalization process of the Agreement, as the case may be. In such cases, when agreed upon with the Seller and when the applicable law allows it, the Client shall return the Hardware to the Seller and the latter shall refund the price of the Hardware and the Fees of the relevant Subscription eventually paid by the Client to the Seller.

In no event shall the Client be entitled to claim or request any indemnification to SALTO for any conflict, modification, addition, or deviation between the Partner Documentation and the Agreement, in case the Client decides to terminate the Agreement or discontinue the formalization process of the Agreement on these grounds.

Under motivated notification, SALTO may refuse a request for Services and thus, decide not to formalize the Agreement with the Client. In such cases, the Client shall return the Hardware to the Seller and the Seller shall refund the price of the Hardware as well as the Fees of the relevant Subscription in force eventually paid by the Client to the Seller. For avoidance of doubt, in no event shall the Client be entitled to claim or request any indemnification to SALTO in case the latter refuses a request for Services in accordance with this paragraph.

3.2. The Agreement shall be deemed formalized and executed only when the Client has accepted these Terms of Service, through clicking on the box "I accept" or any equivalent box and the Registration set forth in provision 4 below has been successfully completed.

3.3. Provided that the Client is not considered as a consumer under the applicable law, the Client agrees and accepts not to receive the contracting information regulated in the articles 27 (paragraphs 1 and 3), and 28 of the Law 34/2002 of July 11, on the information society services and electronic commerce, article 10 of the Directive 2000/31/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2000 on certain legal aspects of information society services, in particular electronic commerce, in the Internal Market, and any other applicable regulation.

5.2. The Services shall be made available to the Client during the Free Trial Period free of charge.

5.3. The Provision of the Services on a free trial basis during the Free Trial Period may require that the Client has previously purchased and installed the Hardware in order to test certain functionalities.

5.4. Once the Free Trial Period concludes, the Client shall not have access to the Services, unless it activates a valid Subscription.

In the event that the Client does not activate a Subscription the access to the Site may continue to be available, although it will not be provided with the Services related to it. In such cases, SALTO shall not be liable whatsoever, for any Direct or Indirect Damage that may derive from the use by the Client of the Site, Site Details, the Hardware and the Platform and any other action performed by the Client and the Users.

which shall be paid to SALTO or to the Seller, as appropriate.

9.2. When the Subscriptions are purchased from a Seller, the Fees are freely negotiated by the Seller and the Client without SALTO's interference. In such a case, the Fees to be paid by the Client for each Subscription for the access and use of the Services are those stated in the applicable Partner Documentation or otherwise agreed upon between the Client and the Seller. The relevant invoice issued by the Seller must be fully paid before activating the Subscription.

9.3. When the Subscriptions are purchased directly from SALTO through electronic means, the Client shall make the payment using any of the authorized payment methods (including, credit and debit card payment and bank transfer).

For such purpose, the payment will be processed by a third party, which will be an authorized payment processing supplier that complies with the appropriate standards and regulation. The terms applicable to the payment processing can be consulted in the following link: <https://stripe.com/es/privacy>

10. RENEWAL AND CANCELLATION OF THE SUBSCRIPTIONS

10.1. The renewal process for the Subscriptions may differ depending on its type, which shall require to actively purchase a new Subscription from a Seller or be subject to an automated renewal process, as further detailed in sections 10.2 and 10.3 below.

10.2. For voucher-type Subscriptions (non-renewed by an automated process), the Client must purchase a new Subscription (voucher) from a Seller and fully pay for it before expiry of the relevant term for keeping the Services. SALTO will notify the Client via electronic means (such as by email, or through the Web App or the Mobile App) of the expiration of the relevant Subscription no later than two (2) calendar weeks before the expiration of each Subscription. 11.1. In the event that SALTO schedules in advance any general maintenance of the Platform and/or the Services needed to be carried out, that may affect the availability of the aforementioned, SALTO shall give the Client prior notice of the scheduled maintenance.

Without prejudice to the above, SALTO is entitled at any time to immediately block, suspend or restrict the use of (parts of) the Services and/or of the access to (part of) the Platform, and/or take other measures if deemed necessary in SALTO's view, for maintenance purposes or for compliance with any statutory requirements, without the Client being entitled to claim for compensation of any damage or loss suffered (neither Direct nor Indirect Damages). In any case, SALTO shall use reasonable efforts to minimize any such disruption of the Services.

If possible, SALTO shall inform the Client in advance as soon as possible of such measures. In case such prior notice is not feasible in view of the circumstances, upon the suspension SALTO shall provide the Client with written notice specifying the reason for the suspension.

11.2. The Client is obliged to provide all cooperation required by SALTO for servicing and maintenance, including stopping the use of the Services by the Client, if SALTO considers this necessary.

SALTO shall make its best efforts to rectify malfunctions and restrictions on the Services as soon as possible.

12.4. In the event SALTO fails to maintain the mentioned availability of the Services during the relevant period of each activated Subscription in force, without occurring any of the circumstances provided in Provisions 12.2 above and 12.5 below, except in case of SALTO's malice (dolo), the Client may claim for Direct Damages subject to the limitations set forth in Provision 16. This Provision sets forth the full and exclusive extent of SALTO's liability existing towards the Client, expressly excluding any other indemnification for any Direct or Indirect Damages regardless of Client's right of terminating the Agreement under these grounds. The Client acknowledges and agrees that the aforementioned agreed indemnifications are adequate and the only compensation for any loss or damage (whether Direct or Indirect) caused to the Client by any unavailability of the Services.

Additionally, the Client agrees and accepts not to address any claim in connection with the lack of availability of the Services to the Seller or SALTO's Group waiving any right it may hold under any jurisdiction in this regard.

The Client shall request any such indemnification to SALTO within a period of five (5) calendar days as of the expiration of the relevant Subscription, notifying the date, and the beginning and end time of each unavailability period occurred during the provision of the Services. Within a period of thirty (30) calendar days since Clients' request, SALTO shall either deny the request in written motivated notice, or pay the agreed indemnification to the Client.

12.5. Without prejudice to any other suspension events foreseen in other articles of these Terms of Service, SALTO may suspend the Services and deny access to the Platform, without the Client being entitled to any indemnification or compensation whatsoever it if:

- 1. SALTO deems it necessary to prevent or terminate a use of the Services prohibited under these Terms of Service and in particular, among others, under Provision 6 above.
- 2. Upon notice to the Client, if the Client commits a material breach of this Agreement.
- 3. The Client does not pay the Fees owed to the Seller on time in accordance with Provision 10.4.

Suspension of the Services shall be without prejudice to any rights or liabilities accruing prior to the suspension.

not be liable whatsoever for any damage that may derive from the usage of the Site.

19.3. Without prejudice to the other provisions of this Agreement, a Party shall only be entitled to early terminate the Agreement in the event of breach of the Agreement, when the non-performing Party fails to remedy the breach after having received a proper written notice of default specifying as many details as possible and starting a reasonable period, which may in no event exceed one (1) month, within which to remedy the failure.

19.4. SALTO shall be never obliged to (i) refund, reimburse or repay the Fees or any other fees already received, or (ii) pay any compensation because of termination for one of the above mentioned reasons (save in case of termination of the Agreement due to a serious breach of SALTO of the essential obligations under this Agreement).
