Given the supplementary nature of the provisions of Article 6.3, §2 Book 6 of the Civil Code under Belgian law, the concurrence between contractual claims against Salto and non-contractual claims against Salto's Auxiliaries (as this term is defined below) is explicitly excluded.

In concrete terms, if at any time the Purchaser considers itself to be an aggrieved party or if it believes it has suffered damage as a result of or in connection with the performance of the agreement, it will only be able to hold the company Salto, (the company with which it has contracted), contractually liable and it will not be able to hold liable any Auxiliary Persons at any time for alleged errors.

This article does not affect the legal provisions of public order or mandatory law. The Auxiliary Persons may, as third-party beneficiaries, invoke the clauses of this article.

For the purposes of this article, "Auxiliary Persons" shall be understood to mean any natural or legal person entrusted by Salto with the total or partial performance of a contractual obligation entered into by Salto, such as employees, directors and similar roles.*
