my-clay.com Cookies Policy

Our website www.my-clay.com (the "Website"), owned by Salto Systems, S.L., uses a technology known as "cookies" in order to gather information on the use of the Website.

We use the cookies to enhance your navigation through the Websites, to distinguish you from other users, analyse your using patterns in order to improve the quality of our services and your user experience, and to build a profile of your interests and show you relevant adverts on other sites.

The purpose of this cookies policy is to provide you with clear and precise information regarding the cookies that we use in our Websites (the "Cookies Policy").

Should you wish further information on the cookies used on our Website, you can Contact our Data Protection Officer. In addition, you can obtain more information about SALTO's processing of your data and how to exercise your rights in our Privacy Policy.

1. WHAT IS A COOKIE?

A cookie is a file that is stored locally on your computer browser or mobile device when accessing certain websites and apps, in order to store and retrieve information about the browsing made from such device.

2. WHAT TYPE OF COOKIES DOES OUR WEBSITE USE?

Here is some information about the type of cookies used on our Website:

2.1. Depending on the entity that manages them:

Depending on the entity managing the domain from which the cookies are sent and process the data obtained, we can distinguish:

- First-party cookies: These are cookies that are sent to the user's device from domains managed by Salto Systems (as editor of the Websites).
- Third-party cookies: These are those that are sent to the user's device from a computer or domain that is not managed by Salto Systems, but by another entity.

The third-party cookies used on this Website belong to:

- Google
- Linkedin
- Facebook
- Cloudfare
- Vimeo
- Onetrust

2.2. Depending on the period of time that they remain:

- Session cookies: These are a type of cookie designed to collect and store data while the user accesses the Websites. As their name suggests, these cookies are stored on the device until the end of the user's browsing session.
- Persistent cookies: These are a type of cookie in which the data continues to be stored on the device and can be accessed and processed for a period defined by the party responsible for the cookie, which can range from a few minutes to a maximum of two years from its installation.

2.3. Depending on the purpose of the cookie:

- Strictly necessary cookies: these cookies are necessary for the Websites to function and cannot be switched off in our systems. They are usually only set in response to actions made by you which amount to a request for services, such as setting your privacy preferences, logging in or filling in forms. You can set your browser to block or alert you about these cookies, but this might cause some parts of the site to stop working. These cookies do not store any personally identifiable information. We do not need your consent for the installation of these cookies on your device.
- Targeting cookies: these cookies may be set through our site by our advertising partners. They may be used by those companies to build a profile of your interests and show you relevant adverts on other sites. They do not directly store personal information but are based on uniquely identifying your browser or device. If you do not allow these cookies, you will experience less targeted advertising. These cookies are only installed on your device with your express consent.
- Performance cookies: These cookies allow us to count visits and traffic sources so we can measure and improve the performance of our site. They help us to know which pages are the most/least visited and see how visitors move around the site. All the information these cookies collect is aggregated and therefore anonymous. If you do not allow these cookies we will not know when you have visited our site and will not be able to monitor its performance. These cookies are only installed on your device with your express consent.
- Functional cookies: these cookies enable the Websites to provide enhanced functionality and personalisation. They may be set by us or by third party providers whose services we have added to our pages. These cookies are only installed on your device with your express consent.

You can find more information about the specific cookies of each type used on the Websites in the settings panel accessible from the banner.

3. HOW DO YOU GIVE YOUR CONSENT?

You give your consent to the installation and use of the cookies subject to the terms of this Cookies Policy by clicking on the box "Allow all" in the cookies banner or the settings panel. Consent is valid for these Websites.

4. INTERNATIONAL DATA TRANSFERS

Some of the personal data collected through third-party cookies may be subject to international transfers, in which case we guarantee that the necessary guarantees will be adopted to protect the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the data potentially involved in such transfer, in accordance with the mechanisms provided by the GDPR in this regard. For more information on the international transfers made by each third party, please access their privacy policies shown in section 2.1 of this Policy.

5. HOW CAN YOU MANAGE YOUR PREFERENCES?

You can set your preferences and configure the use of cookies in the settings panel available in the banner or in the lower margin of the web page. Therefore, if you would like to remove your consent to the use of all or certain types of cookies you must disable their use by changing the settings. Consent for strictly necessary cookies cannot be withdrawn since they are necessary for the functionality of the Websites.

Also, please note that at any time you can block, disable, or delete previously installed cookies by modifying your browser settings. For more information on cookie settings in some of the most common browsers, click on the links below:

6. UPDATES AND CHANGES IN OUR COOKIES POLICY

We may change this Cookies Policy at any time, including among others to adapt our policy to new existing legislation, regulations, or in order to adapt it to the instructions stipulated by the corresponding data protection public authority.

You will be informed when this Cookies Policy undergoes any significant changes.
